We were contacted by Brittany Hack representing Hospice of the Red River Valley about making a presentation to our guild about the services they offer and how we may assist them. Teresa is making contact with her to discuss putting her on the program schedule. We decided to offer her to

It also allows you to register early for Frozen Frohlich.

Missouri Valley Quilt Guild Board Meeting

Treasurer's Report: none because books are being audited

Discussion:

We currently have 60 members in the guild. There are ten people who were members last year who have not paid their dues for this year. Michele will email them to notify that their membership will lapse if dues aren't paid.

Louise suggested putting the January meeting and Show and Tell in the Bismarck Tribune upcoming events section inviting visitors to attend. Teresa is handling this.

Maxine Bondeson is auditing the books for the guild and the FFF committee.

No one has signed up for the National Teacher committee. Volunteers will be solicited again at the January meeting.

Louise will bring fat quarters and thread to start the name tag drawing at monthly meetings.

Ask Diana Trussell if she would like members to send quilts shown at guild for possible posting on our facebook page. She could determine what to post.

Ask Sandi Washek if she would like anything as a gift from members for serving as past president (blocks or fabric, etc.).

JoLayne will send reminders to those who provided soups at the Christmas party to get recipes to Sandi for the Newsletter.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Meeting minutes

The program for January will be the Big Show & Tell. All members attending are encouraged to bring something to share. It doesn't have to be a new project. We want to see a lot of quilts for inspiration for the new year!

Discussion was held on future programs for the rest of the year. For the February program, Teresa has Pat Conrad arranging one or two art quilters she knows to give a trunk show of wall hangings with an artistic twist.

March will be making a portable design wall, facilitated by Teresa Chase & Barb Headrick.
