Treasurer's Report:

Discussion:

Barb Headrick gave us a wrap up report on the National Teacher event that was held over the weekend. It was a very successful event, with higher than normal attendance; the class evaluations have been positive. Finals bills are still being paid, but it is expected the event will generate a small profit. The Guild received a generous grant from the Dakota Arts Council, which allowed us to offer a scholarship for a new quilter to attend. Jackie Jones of Designer Fabrics in Carrington also funded a scholarship for the event.

Two new quilters joined the guild during the National Teacher event.

President Louise will ask for volunteers at the November meeting to audit the books for the Guild and Frozen Fabric Frolic.

The program in January will be the Big Show & Tell, with emphasis on getting everyone to participate, emphasizing you can share anything, not just a newly finished project.

More information on the Christmas challenge was requested for the November Newsletter. JoLayne will provide that information to Sandi & Diane.

Michelle will pay a stipend to past presenters who have presented at the Guild meetings in the last several months.

The November meeting will be tutorials on various homemade Christmas ornaments. Going along with that theme, members are asked to bring homemade ornaments to show & share.

Michelle will pay the church the rent for the coming year.

Discussion:

At the September guild meeting 29 memberships were renewed and 3 new people joined.

In the National Teacher class there are 20 signed up for Friday's class and 16 for Saturday. The committee has done a good job and the preparations are going smoothly. The committee has reached their break even goals.

October Girls' Night In will be October 18 & 19 at House of Prayer. DelRae Martin is the facilitator. The activity is making potholders. Six 9" squares are needed for each potholder. The guild will supply the thinsulate.

The November meeting will be tutorials on making a variety of Christmas ornaments. Five guild members will each demo one ornament. Members will rotate around the room to the tutorials, each lasting approximately 10 minutes. Those leading the tutorials are DelRae Martin, Mary Rasmussen, Melinda Snell, Jenny Yearous and Phyllis Stoddard. Members are also asked to bring homemade ornaments to show/share.

The guild Christmas Party will be Thursday, December 5 at House of Prayer. Final preparations are being made for a Norwegian Christmas.

DelRae Martin and Tania Martin have compiled a list of ideas for future programs.

The dollar amount for the budget of the Christmas Party will be taken out of the standing rules and will be included in the annual budget instead. This was discussed & voted on at the Sept. Guild meeting.

The guild financial books need to be audited. It was decided to wait until January to give time for revenue and expenses from the National Teacher class to flow through the account. The FFF account needs to be audited this year. A volunteer will be called for at the October meeting.

There was a discussion on snacks and hostessing after the guild meetings.

Board meetings will continue being held the first Wednesday of the month at Barnes & Noble.
